A Taste of Arrrt

2012 A Quest for the Children Surrender Ye Heart

Fairbanks Counseling & Adoption is happy to present our 24th annual 'A Taste of Art' 2012, a fun-filled evening of silent and oral auctions, dinner, dessert and dancing. The event will be held Saturday, February 18th, 2012 at the Westmark Hotel Gold Room. Come experience the special magic, see the showcasing of donated items, goods, services and adventures...and join the fun. In 2012 FCA will celebrate 35 years of 'taking families to heart...'

Proceeds from 'A Taste of Art' support the programs and services FCA provides to children, families and individuals in need throughout our community. During this last year, FCA provided adoption services to 252 families, 40 home studies for children in state's custody waiting for permanent homes, counseling and support to 400 individuals from 293 families, family support services for 234 individuals, and provided outreach services for 86 homeless, 86 youth with outreach informational services to 944 community youths, runaway and at-risk youth. FCA's services include:

Adoption Counseling and Support
Nurturing Parenting Classes
Family Support and Preservation Services
Psychiatric Assessment Services

Individual, Child and Family Counseling and Support
Pregnancy Counseling and Support
Street Outreach Services for Homeless and Runaway Youth
Suicide Prevention Program

You can help us provide funding for these programs by making a cash contribution or donation for the auction.
